

States that Protect Minors from Transgender Interventions

January 2024

As of January 2024, there are 23 states that have passed legislation protecting minors from transgender interventions. The majority of laws protect minors from the harms of puberty blockers, cross-sex hormones, and transgender surgeries. A few states have narrower regulations. The protective laws have been temporarily or permanently blocked by judges in four states, and the attorney general has refused to enforce the law in one.
